“He stretches out the north over the empty place
and hangs the earth upon nothing.”

The Book of Job 26:7

For thus says the LORD, who created the heavens (He is God!),
earth and made it,
it; He did not create it formed it to be inhabited!

I am the LORD, and there is no other.

The background of the image is a dark, stormy landscape. A road with white lane markings is visible, but it is heavily cracked and appears to be in a state of disrepair, possibly due to seismic activity. The sky is filled with heavy, dark clouds, and the overall atmosphere is one of gloom and destruction. The text is overlaid on this scene, with several key phrases highlighted in red.

The earth is utterly broken, the earth is split apart, the earth is violently shaken. The earth staggers like a drunken man; it sways like a hut; its transgression lies heavy upon it, and it falls, and will not rise again. Prophet Isaiah 24:19-21 800 Years before Christs birth

A woman with blonde hair, wearing a dark top and a red necklace, is speaking at a podium. The background is dark and out of focus, showing some architectural elements.

“Our economy is at war with many forms of life on earth, including human life. What the climate needs to avoid collapse is a contraction in humanity's use of resources; what our economic model needs to avoid collapse is unfettered expansion.

A night scene of a riot. In the background, a car is on fire, with thick smoke rising into the air. Several police officers in dark uniforms are visible in the foreground, some standing and some looking towards the fire. The scene is dimly lit, with the primary light source being the fire and some distant streetlights.

I know, O LORD, that the way of man is not in himself, that it is not in man who walks to direct his steps.

‘From my analysis, the actions being considered to “stop global warming” will have an imperceptible impact on whatever the climate will do, while making energy more expensive, and thus have a negative impact on the economy as a whole.’

The earth lies defiled under its inhabitants;
for they have transgressed the laws, violated
the statutes, broken the everlasting covenant.

Therefore a curse devours the earth, and its inhabitants suffer for their guilt. Prophet Isaiah

A scenic landscape featuring snow-capped mountains in the background, a dense forest of evergreen trees in the middle ground, a calm lake reflecting the sky, and a field of vibrant yellow and pink flowers in the foreground. The text is overlaid on the image.

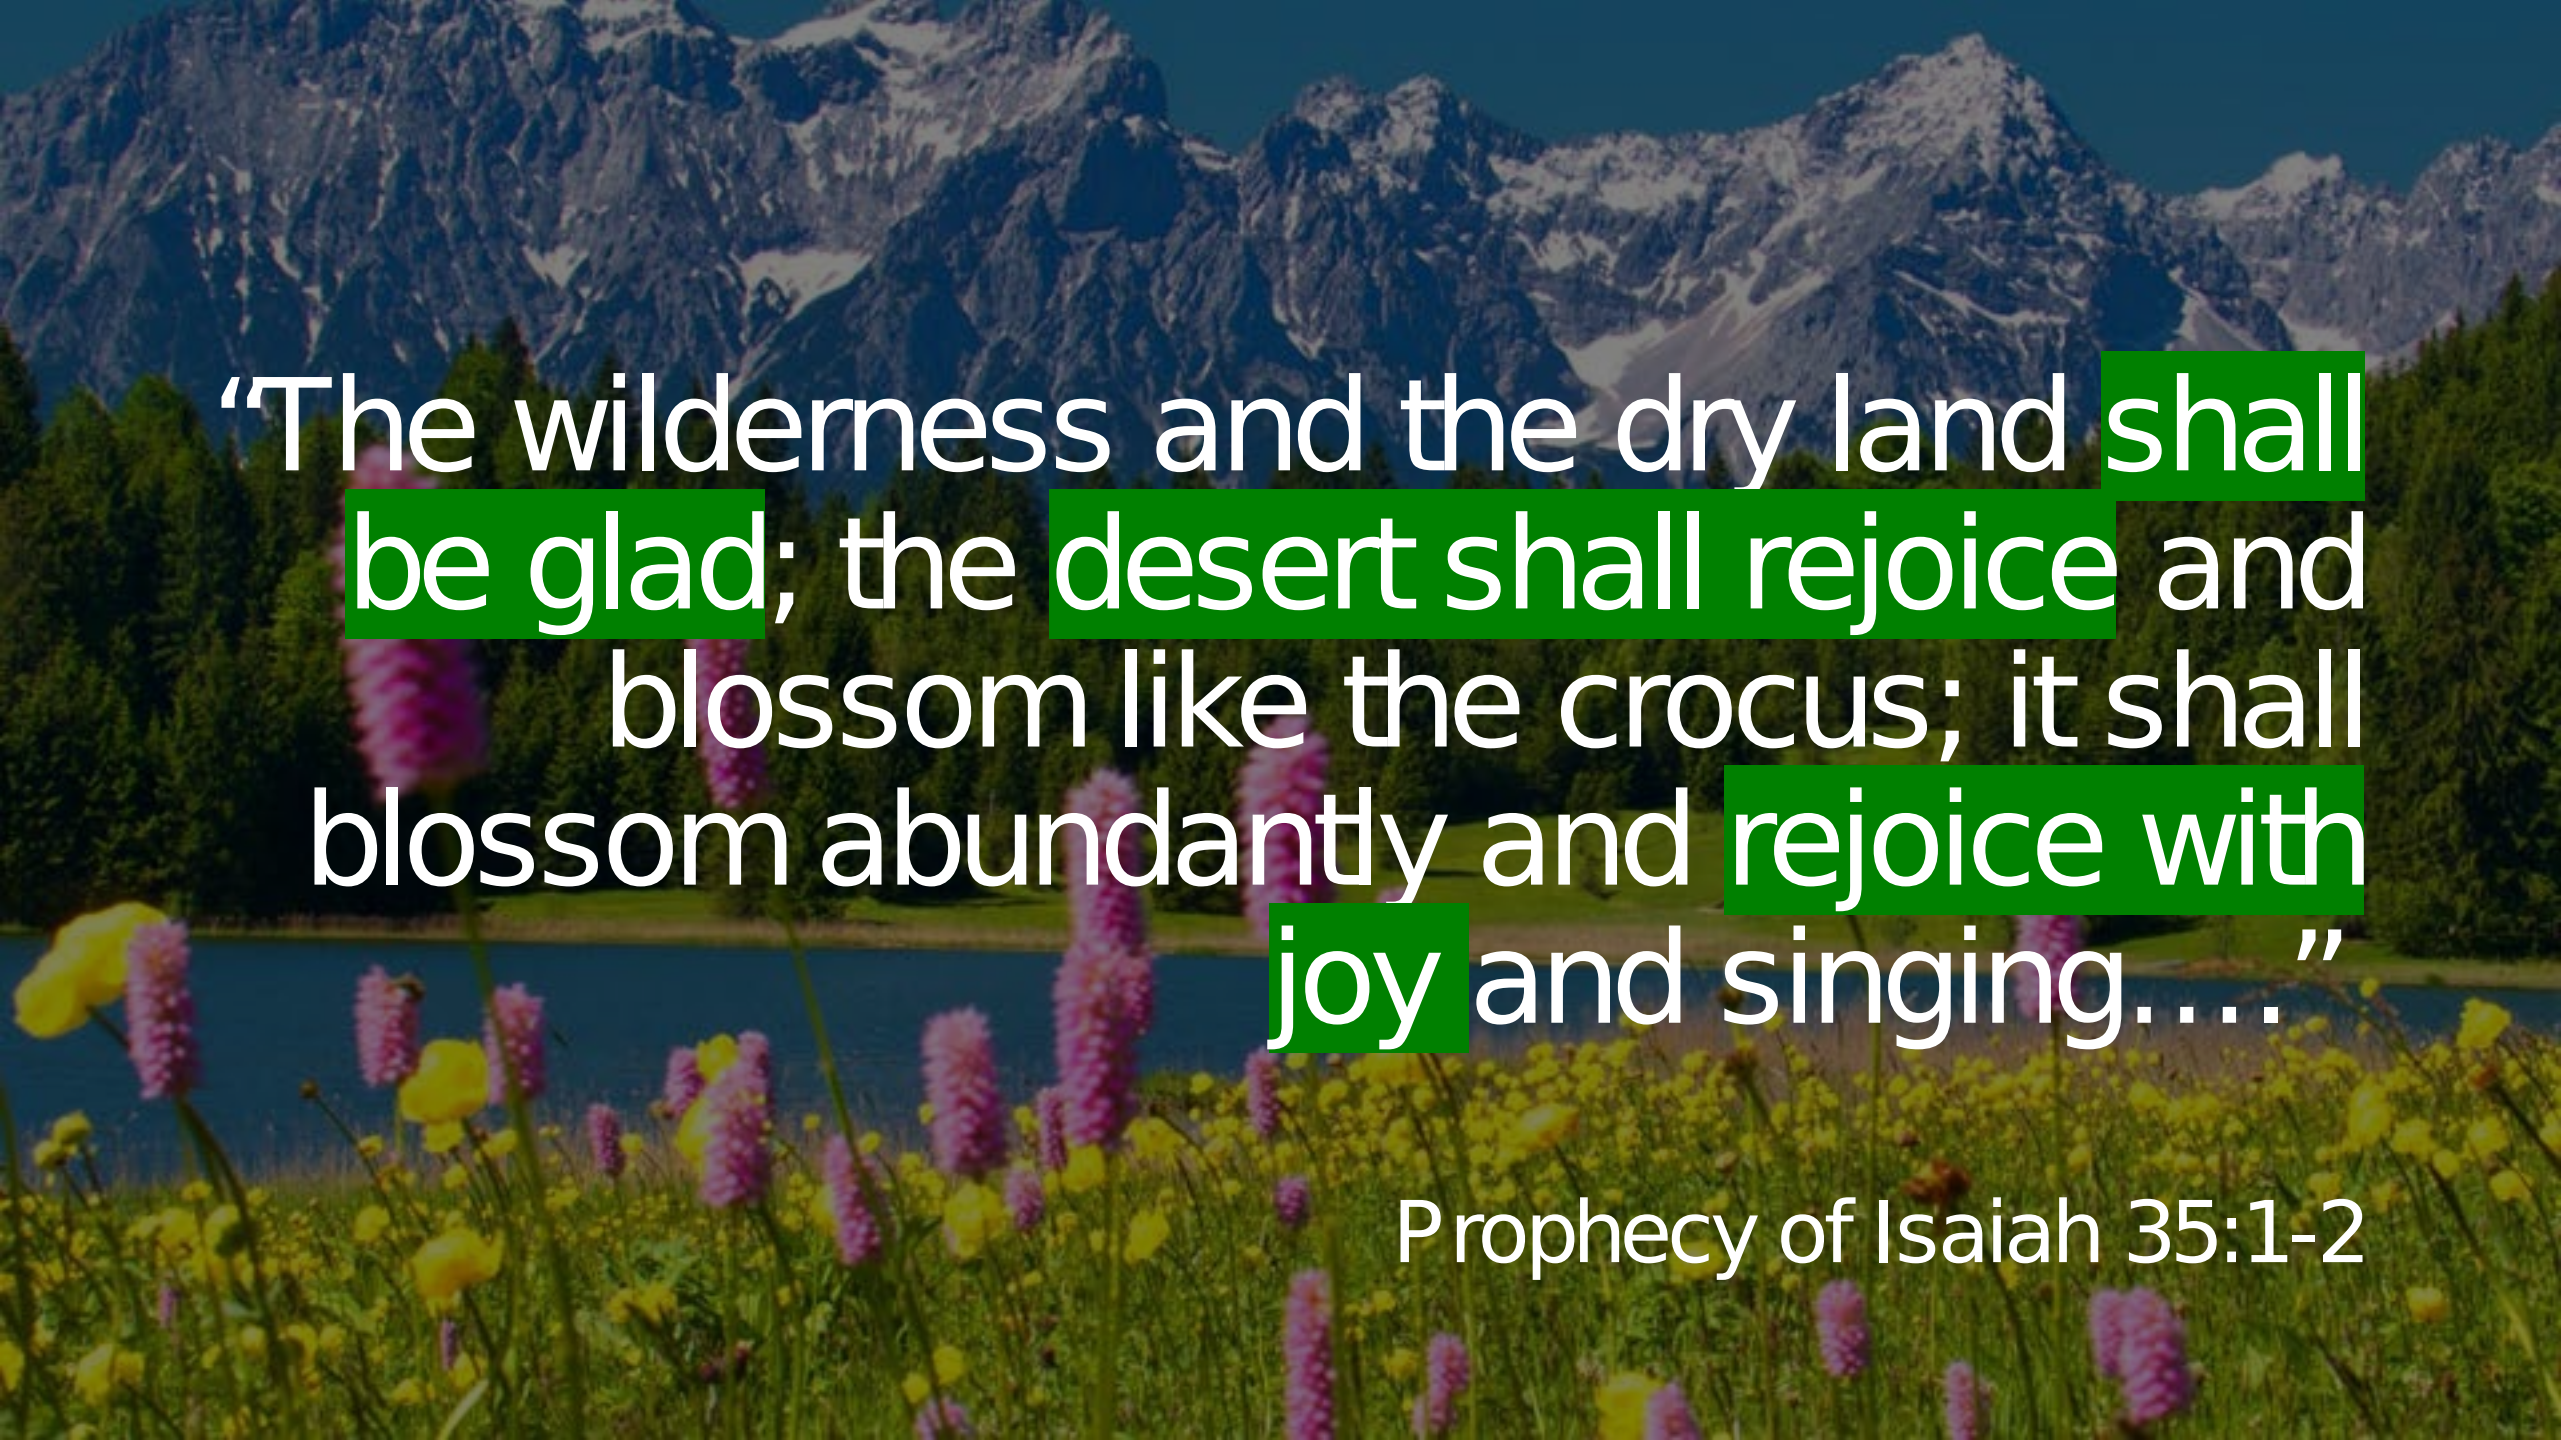

“But as truly as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD.”

Book of Numbers 14:21

A scenic landscape featuring a range of rugged, snow-capped mountains in the background. In the middle ground, there is a calm lake reflecting the sky. The foreground is filled with a field of vibrant yellow and pink flowers, likely buttercups and bellflowers, in full bloom. The overall scene is bright and clear, suggesting a sunny day.

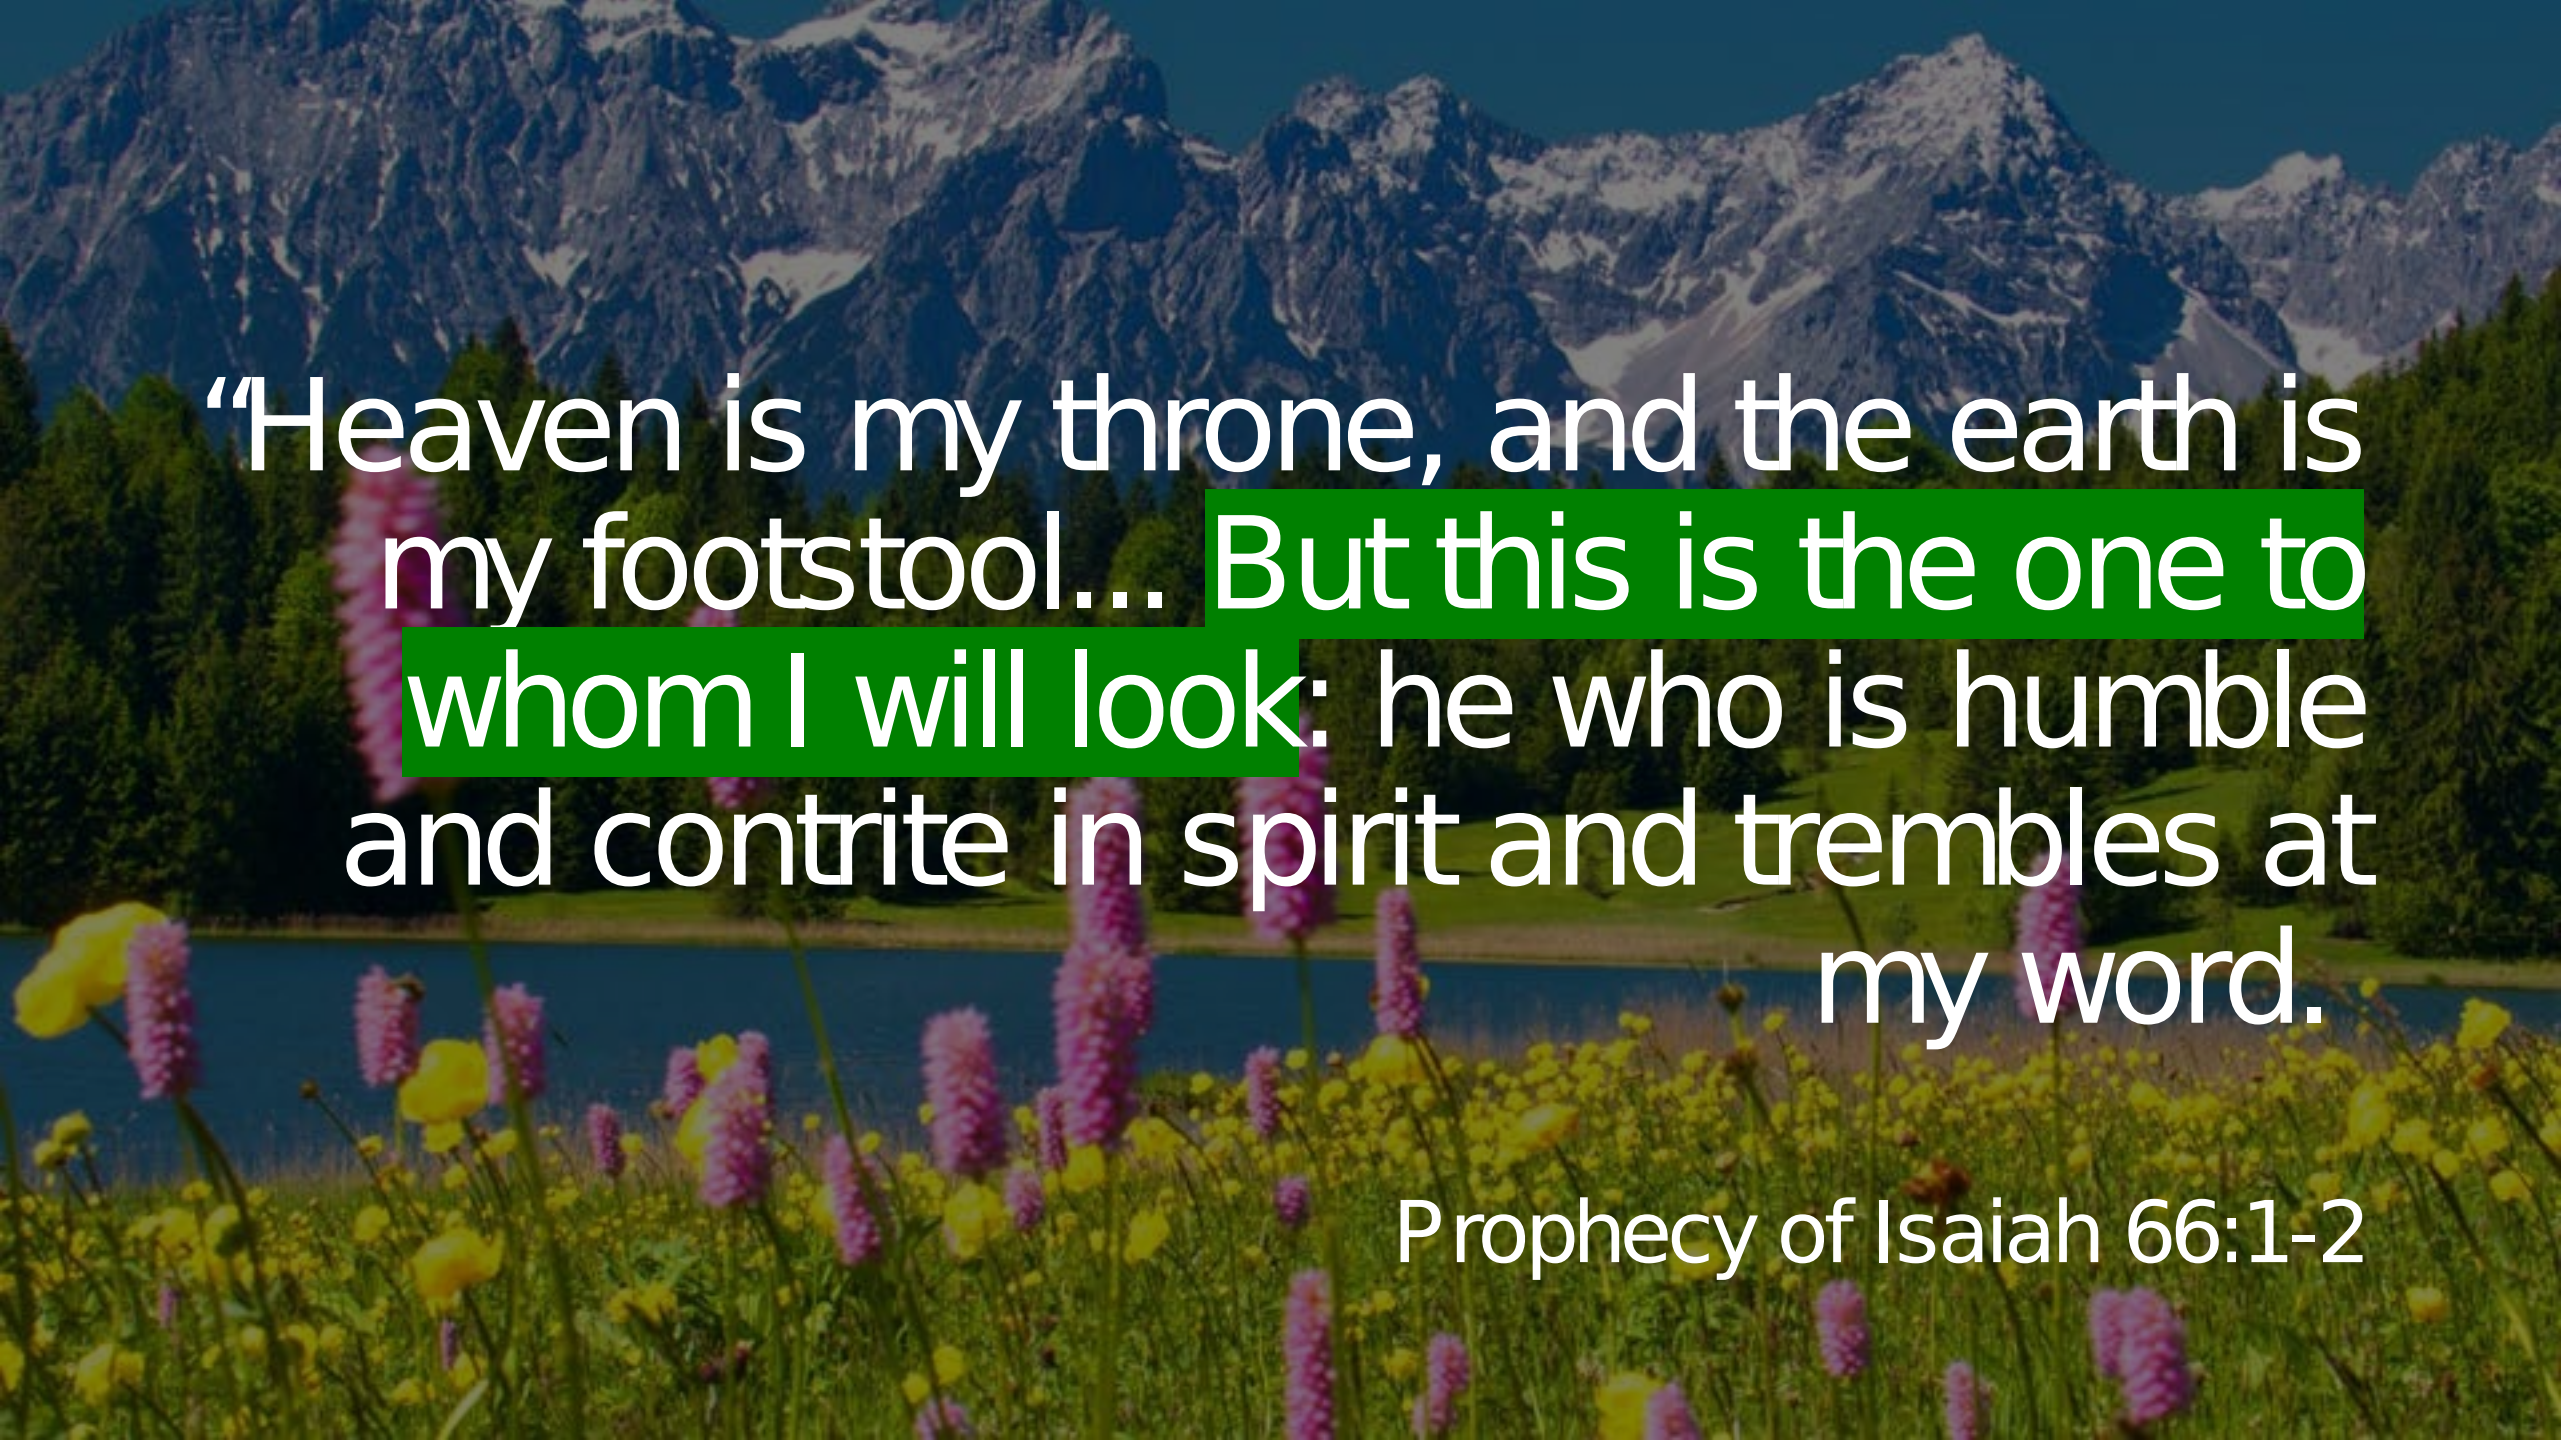

“They shall not hurt or destroy in all my holy mountain; for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.”

Prophet Isaiah 11:9

“The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad; the desert shall rejoice and blossom like the crocus; it shall blossom abundantly and rejoice with joy and singing....”

Prophecy of Isaiah 35:1-2

“Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool... But this is the one to whom I will look: he who is humble and contrite in spirit and trembles at my word.
